

ORGANIZER'S DISCLAIMER

By registering and participating in the race, each competitor accepts the following terms:

1. By registering and participating, the competitor confirms that they are competing solely at their own risk, aware that participation in this race represents a potential danger that includes the risk of various types of physical injury and possible death.
2. The competitor accepts that the Organizer is not liable for any form of damage sustained by them as a result of participation in the competition, whether directly, indirectly, separately or in connection with other circumstances, caused by their own negligence and fault, or the negligence and fault of other competitors or third parties, before, during or after the aforementioned competition.
3. The competitor is responsible for any form of damage caused to third parties that they caused or contributed to through their own negligence or fault.
4. The competitor is obliged, during the race and immediately before and after it, to comply with the officially published rules, safe movement instructions, and participation conditions issued by the organizer, as well as the instructions of referees, marshals and persons engaged in the on-site organization of the race.
5. The competitor waives the right to seek compensation from the organizer through legal proceedings for any form of damage incurred through participation in the race.

RACE RULES

The races are organized by the association Biseri Hrvatske in cooperation with the City of Ston and the Tourist Board of the City of Ston.

PARTICIPATION REQUIREMENTS

Minimum age for participation:

- FUNRUN 4K – 8 years
- 10K – 14 years
- 21.1K – 16 years

By registering and participating, all competitors confirm that they are competing solely at their own risk (for minors, confirmed by a parent or guardian), that they are familiar with the race rules which they will abide by, and that they are aware that participation in this race represents a potential danger that includes the risk of various types of physical injury and possible death.

BIB NUMBERS / CHIPS

Each competitor will receive a bib number with a timing chip (provided by the organizer), which must be worn throughout the entire race. The number must be clearly visible on the chest and must not be covered.

REFRESHMENTS

Refreshments for competitors are provided at stations along the race course and in the finish area.

WITHDRAWAL

If withdrawal is caused by injury and the competitor is unable to continue to a refreshment station or the finish line, they are required to contact the organizer.

DISQUALIFICATION

Competitors will be disqualified for using any means of transportation during the race, moving outside the marked race course, exchanging bib numbers, unsportsmanlike conduct, and failure to comply with the organizer's decisions.

RIGHT TO APPEAL

Appeals must be submitted to the race director in writing after the conclusion of the competition within 3 days.

COURSE CHANGES AND RACE CANCELLATION

The organizer reserves the right to make changes to the course, refreshment stations and aid stations at any time and without prior notice. Competitors will be informed of any potential changes via the official website. In the event of severely adverse weather conditions, the race may be cancelled.

In the event of cancellation by the organizer, the entry fee previously paid by the competitor will be refunded, minus the processing costs of the payment transaction.

MEDIA CONSENT

By registering and participating in the race, competitors consent to all captured photographic and video material being publicly displayed and used for promotional purposes of the race.
